Being Effective During COVID-19: October 21

The outbreak of coronavirus disease and physical distancing orders may be stressful for people. Fear and anxiety about a disease can be overwhelming and cause strong emotions in adults and children.

Join this presentation for assurance that your feelings are normal, stress is normal, and let's focus on what we can control.

Mental Health During a COVID Winter: November 18

This is a marathon, not a sprint. Resiliency is a learned skill, not something that we "just have." The winter and holiday season can be hard on some, and the pandemic is adding a whole additional layer of stress. This awareness-building talk will focus on the importance of self-care and being connected. There are tips and resources available to help maintain a healthier balance.

Our Powerful Mind and the Effect of Self Talk: Dec 8

Join us during this encouraging presentation to bring awareness to your thoughts, feelings and behaviors. In this workshop we will get curious, focus on the power of our thoughts and our feelings, and hear how they impact our day-to-day lives (and how we can shift into a more positive internal dialogue).
